DEFA AFTER EAST GERMANY
Edited by BRIGITTA B. WAGNER

Essays in this collection introduce eighteen key DEFA films and combine historical, analytical, autobiographical, cultural-political, and journalistic discourses to explore the tension between the hopes and frustrations expressed in these films, the historical exigencies that overshadowed their production and reception, and the politics of their revival.

THE NAZI PAST IN CONTEMPORARY GERMAN FILM
Viewing Experiences of Intimacy and Immersion
AXEL BANGERT

Stimulating and accessible, this monograph shows how profoundly cinema and television have transformed collective remembrance of the Third Reich. Bangert provides a comprehensive account of cinema and television productions, presenting case studies of national film events such as Stalingrad (1993) and Downfall (2004), and assessing the influence of international blockbusters from Schindler’s List (1993) to The Reader (2008).
